NUR 113
Oxygenation

Description: This module focuses on the concept of oxygenation as it relates to Sudden Infant Death Syndrome. Emphasis is placed prevention of Sudden Infant Death and the grieving family.

Learning Outcomes:
Upon completion of this module the student will be able to:

1. Identify risk factors associated with Sudden Infant Death Syndrome.
2. Discuss evidence-based practices for prevention of Sudden Infant Death Syndrome.
3. Develop an interdisciplinary plan of care for the grieving family.

Learning Resources:
Text:

Websites: NACOG
www.NC.HealthyStart.org

Lab:

DVD:

Computer Program:

Guest Speaker:
Local Chaplain
Family impacted by Sudden Infant Death Syndrome

Learning Activities:
Identify community resources for the grieving family.

Evaluation:
Unit exams
Lab competencies:
Clinical Performance Evaluation