NUR 114
Professional Behaviors

Description: This module introduces the concepts of professional behaviors. Emphasis is placed on standards of professional practice, values, legal and ethical roles, in addition to ongoing professional development.

Learning Outcomes:

Upon completion of this module the student will be able to:

1. Identify the legal and ethical roles of the nursing professional and adhere to standards of professional practice.
2. Demonstrate beginning skill in using the nursing process to care for a client.
3. Recognize values significant to professional nursing.

Learning Resources:

Website: www.ncbon.org
Video: Confidentiality #1521
Informed Consent #1712
Blackboard: Discussion Forum
Handouts: LCC and ADN Handbooks
Policies and Procedure Manuals
Patient Bill of Rights

Learning Activities:

Writing Activity: Choose one of the values in professional nursing and summarize its significance to professional nursing.
Discuss value challenges in nursing including personal and professional.
Group role play regarding ethical challenges.
Group project/presentation regarding legal issues in nursing.
In clinical setting will use ethical/legal concepts to provide care to clients.

Evaluation:

Unit Tests
Final Exam
Class Participation, Quizzes, Projects
Clinical Performance Evaluation
Self Evaluation